

HURRICANE RELIEF

$750 MILLION to communities impacted by Hurricanes Ian & Nicole.

-  $350 million to assist local governments with FEMA Public Assistance match requirements.
-  $150 million to support affordable housing hurricane recovery efforts.
 - $60 million to assist Floridians with recovery including home repairs, relocation costs, and insurance deductibles.
 - $90 million for the Rental Recovery Loan Program.
-  $150 million for beach renourishment and shoreline fortification.
 - $100 million to support beach renourishment and erosion control for beaches impacted by Hurricanes Ian and Nicole.
 - $50 million for the new Hurricane Restoration Reimbursement Grant Program to assist homeowners with fortifying their homes.
-  $100 million for the new Hurricane Stormwater and Wastewater Grant Program to repair damaged infrastructure to protect public health and the environment.
-  Provides property tax refunds and extends deadlines and discounts for Floridians whose homes were destroyed or rendered uninhabitable.

TOLL RELIEF

$500 million to cut tolls in half for eligible commuters in 2023.

-  Commuters with at least 35 monthly transactions on Florida-based transponders will receive a 50 percent credit on their account throughout the 2023 calendar year.
-  Will benefit approximately 1.2 million Floridians.
-  Average consumer expected to save nearly $400 over the course of the program.

PROPERTY INSURANCE

Increases competition and strengthens consumer protections.

-  Disincentivizes frivolous property insurance litigation which harms consumers.
-  Holds insurance companies accountable for unfair trade practices that hurt policyholders and speeds up the claims process for consumers.
-  Increases transparency in the claims process.