What you need to know now about COVID-19 in Florida

Adults 65 and older and those with underlying medical conditions like heart disease, diabetes and lung disease are more likely to develop serious illness.

Here's what you can do right now.

Review your symptoms

Use the CDC's self-checker to help make decisions and seek appropriate medical care regarding COVID-19.

Learn more

Call first about testing

Call your health care provider or County Health Department if you have symptoms to determine if you need a test.

Wash for 20 sec.

Wash hands often with soap and water – 20 seconds or longer (or use alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol).

Learn more

Practice social distancing

If you are around other people, keep 6 feet between you when possible. Avoid hugs, handshakes, large gatherings and close quarters.

Housing Assistance

The screenshot shows the Florida Housing Search.org website. The header includes the site name and the tagline "A Free Place to List & Find Affordable Housing in Florida". Below the header is a navigation menu with links for Home, About Us, Find Housing, Tenant Tools & Links, and Resources. A search bar is prominently displayed with the text "Search Florida rentals by city, county, or ZIP code". To the right of the search bar is a "Search" button. Below the search bar, there is a section for "FOR TENANTS" with links for "Find Housing", "What can you afford to rent?", "Frequently Asked Questions", and "How to Use This Site".

The screenshot shows the HUD.GOV website. The header includes the HUD logo and the text "HUD.GOV". Below the header is a navigation menu with links for SECRETARY OF HUD, WHAT WE DO, HUMANS OF HUD, FIND SHELTER, and DRIVING AFFORDABLE HOUSING. The main content area features a red banner with the text "HUD COVID-19 Resources and Fact Sheets". Below the banner is a section titled "PHA CONTACT INFORMATION" with the sub-heading "Find Your Local Public Housing Agency (PHA)". The text explains that if you need public housing assistance or would like specific information about public housing programs such as housing choice vouchers, please contact your local Public Housing Agency. It also provides instructions on how to view contact information for Public Housing Agencies in your city and state, including a link to a map. A box contains the text: "Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) are responsible for adding, maintaining, and updating their own information found in the HA module of the IMS/PIC system. For additional information please see the Frequently Asked Questions - HA Profiles page. (PHA Contact Information is Updated Monthly)".
